

PASCO'S LEADING.

Lieut.-Col. Moran, of the 69th Regiment, jumps into second place.

Capt. Wilson Has to Be Content with Third Position.

Names and Votes of All the Candidates in the Contest.

Lient. Pasco, of the Second Battery, still leads in THE EVENING WORLD's National Guard Election with a grand total of 4,400 votes. Lieut. Col. Moran, of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, rushes by Capt. Wilson, of the Second Battery, and jumps into second place with a total of 3,705.

Capt. Wilson is hanging on to third place with 3,459, while Capt. Clark, of Co. D, Seventy-first Regiment, New York, holds fourth position with 2,922 ballots.

The sword which the members candidate will receive is made of magnificent affairs. In first place, it is to be made upon an entirely new design, richly ornamented, and of the best material to obtain.

The state of the first Division is:

The battery and guard will be of brass or special design, burnished and hand-chased, as well as the mountings upon the scabbard, which will be straight and flat. The scabbard may be either straight or of embossed metal, silver-plated and burnished, the design depending on the rank of the officer, according to its value.

The shield on the blade of the sword will depend upon the name of the winner; if it is an officer it will be straight, and if a staff officer, it will be a sabre and curved in form.

A medallion of burnished and hand-chased metal on the upper part of the scabbard will be inscribed with the name of the winner, with his rank and regiment.

Owing to the urgent request of members of different regiments in the western north of this State and New Jersey, it has been decided to continue the contest beyond Dec. 10, the time fixed yesterday for closing. Due notice will be given in THE EVENING WORLD.

This extension of time will give parties at a distance plenty of time to get in their ballots, which they could not otherwise do account of the short time allowed.

If you have not already done so cut out and send the following blank, properly filled, to THE EVENING WORLD:
